

California Department of Food and Agriculture
Healthy Stores Refrigeration Grant Program
Projects Selected for Award of Funds - July 2019

Applicant Name	Project Description	Tentative grant amount*	County
Abundant Table	Abundant Table is a nonprofit farm with a roadside market adding indoor refrigeration and a refrigerated van for sourcing and selling produce as well as supplying other corner stores with produce.	$ 61,528	Ventura
Alameda County Public Health Department - Nutrition Services Program	Alameda County Public Health Department - Nutrition Services Program is a county healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for eight local corner stores.	$ 99,137	Alameda
Berkeley Student Food Collective	Berkeley Student Food Collective is a nonprofit grocery store serving low income student populations that is purchasing refrigeration units to sell more produce.	$ 10,093	Alameda
Bodega Country Store	Bodega Country Store is a small-scale rural store adding refrigeration in order to expand its capacity to sell produce.	$ 16,942	Sonoma
Chico Natural Foods Co-op	Chico Natural Foods Co-op is a small-scale store adding new refrigeration units to stock and sell California grown fresh produce, nuts and minimally processed foods.	$ 8,100	Butte
City of Pasadena Public Health Department	City of Pasadena Public Health Department operates a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for four corner stores.	$ 69,500	Los Angeles
Community Services Unlimited Inc.	Community Services Unlimited Inc. is a nonprofit operating a small grocery market that is adding refrigeration to enhance their sale of produce. They also operate a wholesale produce business and are purchasing a refrigerated van to better supply local corner stores with fresh produce for sale.	$ 100,719	Los Angeles
County of Los Angeles Internal Services Department, Energy and Environmental Services	County of Los Angeles Internal Services Department, Energy and Environmental Services is partnering with utilities to upgrade and/or purchase new refrigeration equipment in 85 corner stores to sell produce.	$ 1,402,500	Los Angeles
El Valle Produce	El Valle Produce is a corner store and wholesale business adding refrigeration to their small store to sell more produce.	$ 24,400	Santa Cruz

* Grant amounts subject to change based on equipment and budget finalization.

California Department of Food and Agriculture
Healthy Stores Refrigeration Grant Program
Projects Selected for Award of Funds - July 2019

Applicant Name	Project Description	Tentative grant amount*	County
Health Education Council	Health Education Council is a nonprofit operating a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for seven corner stores.	$ 110,000	San Joaquin
Hunters Point Family	Hunters Point Family is a nonprofit operating a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for three corner stores.	$ 46,889	San Francisco
Loma Mar Store	Loma Mar Store is a small rural market and kitchen adding refrigeration to sell more produce.	$ 5,318	San Mateo
Lompoc Valley Community Healthcare Organization	Lompoc Valley Community Healthcare Organization is a nonprofit supporting a local farmer's market to expand offerings with standing refrigeration as well as to create a new mobile market by purchasing a refrigerated truck that will facilitate more equitable access to produce.	$ 110,860	Santa Barbara
Los Angeles Food Policy Council	Los Angeles Food Policy Council is a nonprofit operating a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for four corner stores.	$ 64,020	Los Angeles
Mandela Partners	Mandela Partners is a nonprofit operating a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for three corner stores and will also purchase a refrigerated van and refurbishing an existing van with refrigeration in order to expand produce distribution to new corner stores.	$ 74,250	Alameda
Mother Lode Exchange Community Market	Mother Lode Exchange Community Market is an indoor rural farmers'/artisans' market adding refrigeration to sell more produce.	$ 3,152	Amador
Placerville Food Co-op	Placerville Food Co-op is a small-scale store adding refrigeration to expand produce offerings.	$ 27,255	El Dorado
Public Health Institute	Public Health Institute is a nonprofit operating a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for seven corner stores.	$ 17,279	Sacramento
Redwood Empire Food Bank	Redwood Empire Food Bank is a nonprofit food bank that operates a small retail store for low income, nutrition benefit clients to shop without shame that is purchasing refrigeration to expand their retail produce selection.	$ 52,084	Sonoma

* Grant amounts subject to change based on equipment and budget finalization.

California Department of Food and Agriculture
Healthy Stores Refrigeration Grant Program
Projects Selected for Award of Funds - July 2019

Applicant Name	Project Description	Tentative grant amount*	County
SÜPRMARKT	SÜPRMARKT is a social business with pop-up produce sales and a Community Supported Agriculture program that is opening a permanent retail location and purchasing refrigeration equipment as well as a refrigerated van to better store and sell produce to the low income shoppers served.	$ 26,179	Los Angeles
Sustainable Economic Enterprises of Los Angeles (SEE-LA)	SEE-LA is a nonprofit operating a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for two corner stores.	$ 26,493	Los Angeles
Sutter Center Market	Sutter Center Market is a rural corner store adding refrigeration to stock and sell more produce.	$ 14,589	El Dorado
Tenderloin Neighborhood Development Corporation	Tenderloin Neighborhood Development Corporation is a nonprofit operating a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for two corner stores.	$ 18,700	San Francisco
The Center for Land Based Learning	Center for Land Based Learning is a nonprofit purchasing a refrigerated truck to start a new mobile market serving low income customers.	$ 82,465	Sacramento
The Food Trust	The Food Trust is a nonprofit operating a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for 13 corner stores.	$ 60,500	Santa Clara
TKP Farms/Blosser Urban Garden	Blosser Urban Garden is a small organic farm with a farm stand, wholesale market and Community Supported Agriculture program serving low income, primarily immigrant populations that is adding indoor refrigeration and a refrigerated van to scale their services.	$ 45,000	Santa Barbara
Tulare County Health and Human Services Agency - Public Health Branch, Nutrition Education and Obesity Prevention (NEOP) Program	Tulare County Health and Human Services Agency - Public Health Branch, NEOP Program operates a county healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for seven corner stores.	$ 74,116	Tulare

* Grant amounts subject to change based on equipment and budget finalization.

California Department of Food and Agriculture
Healthy Stores Refrigeration Grant Program
Projects Selected for Award of Funds - July 2019

Applicant Name	Project Description	Tentative grant amount*	County
University of California, San Diego, Center for Community Health	University of California, San Diego, Center for Community Health is a nonprofit (university) operating a healthy retail program that will provide technical assistance and refrigeration for 14 corner stores and help establish a new community supported agriculture program for low income clients.	$ 187,000	San Diego
TOTAL*		$ 2,839,068

* Grant amounts subject to change based on equipment and budget finalization.